Being one of the part of MARK-FLY Ventures, Publishing house was a dream to be accomplished. The goal is to help every writer, succeed in the upcoming years. Mark-Fly ventures was Established in 2018, as a Digital Firm and then slowly expanded into Software services and products. Foreseeing the interest of our Founders and directors, Mark-Fly Publishers was formed with compassion to achieve laurels in the literature field.

The company focuses on book printing and publishing with special emphasis on distribution to both authors and other publishers from around the world. It's vision is to help every aspiring writer give wings to their words. You have an idea, we'll make it work. With an extensive distribution network both online and offline, you will never feel the twinge of being lost in translation.

Our company strives to provide the perfect platform for being heard by having a sturdy distribution network in place. Our books are designed and packaged with care, ensuring that every title maintains its ingenuity and reaches the target audience safely. At Mark-Fly Publishers we endeavor to enhance every author's visibility by taking their product directly to the masses.

We are open to titles of all genres and languages, and also aspire to translate manuscripts to other dialects. You feel the creative juices flowing, but don't know how to proceed? Hop onboard and make a mark with us!
